PHRASING OF ENDORSEMENTS

Certification of Instructional classes

PRESENTATION

To guarantee the fittingness of declaration enlistment, the accompanying phrasing on testaments should be utilized, commonly as a reference.

"This is a licensed testament approved for issue by Authorization Administration for Affirming Bodies LLC, who have evaluated XXXX against characterized models and in cognisance of UKJAS TC:2023 'Certification of Instructional classes'. This endorsement is just legitimate when affirmed by the register recorded in the Global Register of Value Surveyed Associations:

www.UKJAS.com.

AUTHENTICATION DATA

Endorsements or examination reports ought to, as a base, incorporate the accompanying data:

- Understudy name
- Instructional classes name in full
- Date of endorsement
- Beginning appraisal date
- Re-certificate date (if appropriate)
- The expiry date of the authentication (if relevant)
- Name and address of authentication granting body (preparing organization)
- Admonitions with respect to limits on legitimacy (for example dependent upon a good intermittent boost course and re-assessment, and so on.)
- Logo of granting body (preparing foundation)
- The license sign of UKJAS (see underneath)

LICENSE IMPRINT

The UKJAS license imprint might be displayed on the endorsement in a way that is the least predominant imprint on the testament and in a style with the end goal that it won't cause any sensible spectator to construe or in any case accept that the endorsement is given straight by UKJAS. If it's not too much trouble, see (most recent adaptation) for additional prerequisites.
